FRIGHTFUL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

The details have come to band this morning and so clearly the result of inexcusable care we only repeat what is generally conceded. Irraness that it is difficult to narrate the circumstances without in some degree anticipating the decision which the coroner's jury will have to pronounce. At about a quarter to one o'clock yesterday morning the mail train for London was run into and cut in two by a goods train on the North-Eastern line at a spot about one-third of a mile south of the Carlisle Citadel station, where the North-Engtern crosses the main line of the Lancaster and use them. It is not claimed that they exercise Carlisle Railway. Five persons were kuled. and a large number more or less seriously injured.
